Buddleia Fortune

PLANT PATENT No. 206

Habit

Of neat well-balanced growth producing numerous branches about four feet long. Diameter of plant about four feet. Exceedingly free flowering.

Flowers

Panicles usually twice the length of common Buddleia. Average length 12 to 18 inches. Color pure lilac, small orange eye in individual floret. Flowers fully rounded, not flat one side and in bloom from bottom to top of panicle all at the same time.

Lasting

As a cut flower no other Buddleia can compare with it. Stems are 2 to 2½ feet long. Last in water for 4 to 5 days and are superb for use with other flowers, the clear lavender blending perfectly with shades of pink, rose, orange or yellow.
